

Please keep the Do Not Call List alive and active in New Jersey.

I believe that my rights to privacy and peacefulness are more important than the telemarketer.

I do not want anyone to call me unless I invite them to do so. Afterall, it is my home, I pay for the phone service and I do not know, nor want to know these people.

If I want to buy something, I will do the calling.

M. R. Kern